OBJECTIVE OF POLICY

This Policy mechanism provides the comprehensive framework for preservation of documents for a specified period of time to achieve the following objectives:

- a) Effective corporate governance and risk management;
- b) Effective information management to support the work of the administrations and provision of continued access to it at times when needed;
- c) Systematic disposal/destruction of Organisation's non-current records that have outlived their administrative usefulness.
- d) Identification of the Organisation's records that are of continuing administrative and historical value to warrant their transfer to and preservation in the Organisation's Archives.

SCOPE OF THE POLICY

For the purpose of achieving the above objectives, the documents covered as per this Policy have been divided into two sections, i.e., the records or the documents that will be preserved permanently by the Organisation and the records or the documents that will be preserved for the period of at least 8 years and not permanently. This Policy applies to the records maintained by the Organisation in any format or medium. The records which are not required to be retained permanently shall be disposed off according to this Policy.

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

The Compliance Officer, as designated by the Board of the Company in this behalf, shall be responsible for the preservation of the records according to the time frame prescribed in the Policy for their preservation.

All staff and management of the Company shall assist in implementing this Preservation Policy as appropriate to their roles and responsibilities.

Based on the requirement and for the purpose of effective management, the period for which the records of the Company shall be maintained have been classified into two categories:

- i. Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature;
- ii. Documents whose preservation shall be at least 8 years.

The classification of the documents has been made in the Annexure which forms part of this Policy.

While prescribing different time period for preservation of records, the following aspects have been taken into account:

- (a) Compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.
- (b) Satisfaction of the needs of SEBI/RBI inspectors to have access to certain records.
- (c) Satisfaction of the needs of internal and external auditors to have access to certain records.

The documents or records not covered by this Policy shall be maintained by the Company for the time period specified for their preservation under any statute or regulation by which they are governed.

LOCATION OF RECORDS

Certain records shall be located at the registered office of the Company. The records for which no specific place has been specified under any statute shall be maintained at the corporate office of the Company or at any other place as may be approved by the Board of Directors, from time to time.

ACCESS AND AUTHENTICITY

The preservation of the records of the Company is vital in order to ensure all current and future access to the records. Preservation is also concerned with ensuring the authenticity of records.

The Compliance Officer shall prepare a matrix for identifying persons who will be allowed to access different kinds of records maintained & preserved by the Company. Since the records are maintained at different levels and departments in the Company, therefore Functional Heads should be authorized to ensure the preservation and access to the Records under their jurisdiction.

RECORD RETENTION SCHEDULE

The records referred to in Annexure A of this Policy shall be maintained permanently and Records should not be kept longer than is necessary and should be disposed of at the right time as unnecessary retention of records consumes time, space and equipment use, therefore disposal will aid efficiency. The records referred to in Annexure A(B) shall be preserved for at least 8 years and thereafter as per the discretion of the Board of Directors records may be disposed of in the manner prescribed by it.

MODE OF PRESERVATION

The Documents may be preserved in

- a) Physical form; or
- b) Electronic Form.

The official of the Company required to preserve the document shall be an Authorised Person who is generally expected to observe the compliance of statutory requirements as per applicable law.

The preservation of documents should be such as to ensure that there is no tampering, alteration, destruction or anything which endangers the content, authenticity, utility or accessibility of the documents.

The preserved documents must be accessible at all reasonable times. Access may be controlled by the concerned Authorised Person with preservation, so as to ensure integrity of the Documents and prohibit unauthorized access.

- Destruction of documents

The documents of the Policy which are no longer required as per the time schedule prescribed in the Annexure A may be destroyed. The concerned officer may direct employees in charge from time to time to destroy the documents which are no longer required as per the documents Preservation Schedule given under Annexure A(A). The details of the documents destroyed by the Company shall be recorded in the Register for Disposal of Records to be kept by Employees who are disposing of the documents in the format prescribed at Annexure A(B). The entries in the register shall be authenticated by the Authorised Person.

RECORD APPRAISAL

The Organisation shall at regular intervals carry out the appraisal of the records preserved as per this Policy. The purpose of the appraisal process is to ensure the records are examined at the appropriate time to determine whether or not they are worthy of archival preservation, whether they need to be retained for a longer period as they are still in use, or whether they should be destroyed. The appraisal of records shall be undertaken only after the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

RISK-BASED APPROACH

The Company adopts a risk-based approach in an endeavour to preserve the collection of its records. A preservation risk assessment for the whole collection shall be conducted and subsequently shall be reviewed periodically. The result of the risk assessment would be used to determine the urgency of preservation action: a low risk may simply indicate that the risk assessment should be recalculated at a future date, whereas a high risk will trigger immediate action.

REVIEW OF THE POLICY

This Policy may be amended with the approval of Directors as may be deemed necessary and in accordance with any regulatory amendments.

Should there be any inconsistency between the terms of the Policy and the Listing Regulations, the provisions of the Listing Regulations shall prevail. Any amendments to the Listing Regulations shall mutatis mutandis be deemed to have been incorporated in this Policy.
